

SALAM NEIGHBOR

Film Screening followed by discussion with Zach Ingrasci, Filmmaker

Thursday, November 10, 2016

5:00 p.m.

Baker Hall, Zoellner Arts Center

Salam Neighbor is a documentary released in 2016 by the film production companies Living on One Dollar and 1001 MEDIA. The title means "hello" neighbor. The title has a dual meaning as the Arabic word "salam" also means "peace."

The film documents the experiences of American filmmakers Zach Ingrasci and Chris Temple when they lived among 85,000 Syrians in Jordan's Za'atari refugee camp, which lies seven miles from the Syrian border. The filmmakers, who were the first allowed by the UN to register and set-up a tent inside a refugee camp, spent a month in Za'atari to cover what the UN Refugee Agency calls the world's most pressing humanitarian crisis.

Co-sponsors

Center for Global Islamic Studies, Chaplain's Office, Dean of Students Co-Sponsorship Fund, Doors of Clubs, Engineers without Borders, Global Citizenship Program, Global Studies Program, Health Medicine and Society, Humanities Center, Department of Journalism and Communications, Mellon Digital Humanities Initiative, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, No Lost Generation, Department of Political Science, Psi Upsilon, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Student Auxiliary Services; Student Senate, and Sustainable Development Program

Office of Interdisciplinary Programs: 610-758-3996 | incasip@lehigh.edu

85,000 SYRIANS
TWO AMERICANS
FAR FROM HOME

SALAM NEIGHBOR

سلام يا جار

JOIN THE DIALOGUE

@Lehigh_CAS #CASDialogue

/CAS.Lehigh